

Dignified, Discreet and Direct

Lewis Funeral Services respect that everyone should have a choice in the type of funeral Service they need to arrange. Sometimes a dignified, discreet and direct cremation is the most fitting funeral solution.

Please note that this option of service should not be confused with the attended or the un-attended service.

In this option we shall under your instruction carry out the most direct of cremation, dignified and discreet.

Details of the Dignified, Discreet and Direct funeral are listed below:

- You request this option.
- We shall convey the deceased from place of death to Afallon Funeral Home (15 mile radius included).
- You attend at our Funeral Home to complete documentation (or electronically if possible).
- We offer advice and guidance on the Registration process or any HM Coroner involvement.
- We provide an Eco friendly simple coffin.
- We provide a simple shroud for the deceased.
- We transfer the deceased to a local Crematorium (Parc Gwyn, Narberth or Aberystwyth).
- We carry out this service on a day and time convenient to us.
- We collect the cremated remains from the crematorium and will keep them at Afallon Funeral Home for one month awaiting your collection. (you may choose to have the cremated remains scattered at the crematorium; we can advise on this).
- The cremated remains will be returned to you in a simple cardboard box; however we can provide a 'scatter tube' for a small extra fee.
- The complete cost of this option must be paid three days in advance of the cremation.
- There is no viewing or visitation included with this option.

We ask you to consider the other options available from us; especially our: 'The Avalon Funeral'.

Total cost of the Dignified Discreet and Direct Option: £1295.00p

(the above includes the Crematorium Fee and an allowance of £82.00p as a Doctor Cremation Form fee)
