

'The Avalon Funeral'

Lewis Funeral Services realise that customs and trends have changed over the years and our business has evolved to accommodate these changes whilst still respecting valued established traditions.

A Funeral Service at Afallon Funeral Home followed by a dignified simple unattended cremation has become an increasingly popular choice.

Details of the 'Avalon Funeral' are set out below:

- You request the service.
- We will transfer the deceased from the place of death to Afallon Funeral Home (15 mile radius included)
- We will either attend your home locally or you can visit our Funeral Home for discussion, advice and support to complete all necessary documentation.
- We will provide a free on-line death notice (if requested).
- We will if requested assist with any newspaper notice / order of service leaflets (cost of printing/notice not included).
- We shall provide a choice of coffin (up to the value of £220.00p included but further options are available as per price list and the cost difference will be added).
- Viewing where possible will be allowed with the permission of the applicant for cremation.
- We shall provide a basic gown or dress the deceased in their own suitable clothing.
- You may invite up to a maximum of 35 guests to attend a service of your choosing at Afallon Funeral Home.
- The use of the service room for one hour is included.
- We can provide a person to assist and lead the service at Afallon (if desired).
- The use of our private parking facility at our discreet private Funeral Home is included.
- Having discussed with you, we shall convey the deceased to either Parc Gwyn Crematorium, Narberth or Aberystwyth Crematorium for an unattended cremation.
- This includes an allowance of £82.00p towards a Medical Cremation Form (Doctors fee).
- Collection of the cremated remains from the crematorium is included.
- The cremated remains will be safely kept at Afallon Funeral Home for your collection.

(It is possible that a charge will be levied for the storage of cremated remains that are kept for longer than one month).

- We will provide a 'scatter Tube' of your choice from the range listed in our coffin and products brochure.

We ask for a £1000.00p deposit to be paid 3 days in advance, prior to the service at Afallon with the remaining balance to be paid according to our usual terms of business. Please refer to our terms and conditions.

The cost of the above service is £2000.00p
